Water for Elephants

Read by David LeDoux & John Randolph Jones

"Sara Gruen has written an utterly transporting novel richly full of the stuff of life." —Robert Olen Butler
Pulitzer Prize-winning author of A Good Scent from a Strange Mountain

Inside Jacob Jankowski's ninety-something-year-old mind dwell memories of himself as a young man, tossed by fate into the Benzini Brothers' Most Spectacular Show on Earth. Memories of a world filled with freaks and clowns, with wonder and pain and anger and passion; a world with its own narrow, irrational rules, its own way of life, and its own way of death. The world of the circus, to Jacob it was both salvation and a living hell.

Jacob was there because his luck had run out. It was the early part of the Great Depression, and everyone in this third-rate circus was lucky to have any job at all. Marlena, the star of the equestrian act, was there because she fell in love with the wrong man, a handsome circus boss with a wide mean streak. And Rosie the elephant was there because she was the great gray hope, the new act that was going to be the salvation of the circus; the only problem was, Rosie didn't have an act—in fact, she couldn't even follow instructions. The bond that grew among this unlikely trio was one of love and trust, and ultimately, it was their only hope for survival.

Sara Gruen is the author of the bestseller Riding Lessons and Flying Changes. She lives with her husband, her three children, four cats, two goats, two dogs, and a horse in an environmental community north of Chicago.

Playaway is the simplest way to listen to an audio book on the go. It comes with the book already on it and a battery to make it play. Simply plug in its earphones and enjoy. No cassettes or CDs. No downloads. There's nothing left to do but listen.

Functions:

- Adjusts the speed of the narrator's voice
- Remembers where you stopped
- Works with most headphones, speakers and car adapters
