—DAVID GERGEN, Professor of Public Service and Director, Center for Public Leadership, Harvard Kennedy School

MIKE FEINBERG AND DAVE LEVIN were determined to learn how best to teach their low-income, at-risk students. "Filled with energy and hope... This book should be read by everyone who cares about education in our country."

—RICHARD W. RILEY, former U.S. Secretary of Education

"KIPP is the most important educational story in America today."

—ABIGAIL THERNSTROM, co-author of No Excuses: Closing the Racial Gap in Learning and Vice Chair, U.S. Commission on Civil Rights

JAY MATHEWS covers education for the Washington Post and has created Newsweek's annual Best High Schools rankings. He has won the Benjamin Pine Award for Outstanding Education Reporting for both features and column writing, and he has written six previous books. Reader J. PAUL BOEHMER is an experienced stage and screen actor who also teaches voice and speech to high-school students.

From Her Sister-Hit New York Times Bestseller
Best Novel, Kristin Hannah and the Inner Workings of 6 Minds and Hearts

The Grey sisters had only each other when their mother died years ago. Their father provided for them physically on Water's Edge, the ranch that had been in their family for three generations; each of them, however, longed for their father's love.

Winona, the oldest, knew early on that she could never get it. An overweight dreamer and reader, she didn't exhibit the kinds of talents and strengths her father valued.

Vivi Anne, the youngest, had those things. And it was Vivi Anne who only ever saw a glimmer of their father's approval.

When Vivi Anne makes a fateful decision to follow her heart, rather than take the route of a dutiful daughter, events are set in motion that will test the love and loyalties of the Grey sisters.

With breathtaking pace and penetrating insight, Kristin Hannah's True Colors is a novel about sisters, vengeance, rivalry, betrayal—and ultimately, what it truly means to be a family.
